Supporting evidence to attach

These items are listed rather than attached: only you hold them. Attach each one to the PayPal dispute response.

[ATTACH: The signed contract, statement of work or written agreement with Nova Startup]

Establishes the scope, the rate and the payment terms the invoice was raised under.

[ATTACH: The delivery email or handoff message that transferred the finished work]

Shows what was delivered and when.

[ATTACH: Screenshots of the project thread with Nova Startup showing the work was accepted or used]

Acceptance after delivery is the strongest answer to a not-received dispute.

[ATTACH: The deliverable files themselves covered by invoice inv-36]

Attach the files, or dated links to where the client can still reach them.

[ATTACH: The invoice document (this pack) as sent on Jul 15, 2026]

Shows the client was billed with the agreed terms and a due date.

[ATTACH: Copies of the reminder emails sent on Jul 29, 2026, Aug 1, 2026, Aug 5, 2026]

Shows the client was chased before the dispute and stayed silent.

[ATTACH: A PayPal transaction export for this client showing no payment against this invoice]

The absence of payment is itself evidence; the export proves it came from PayPal's own records.

[ATTACH: Your written response to the merchandise or service not received claim, filed before Aug 12, 2026]

PayPal reads the seller's statement first; keep it to the facts in this pack.

File the response and these attachments with PayPal before Aug 12, 2026.
